JEN DALITZ

Business consultant and founder of Sphinx for women in leadership.

Describe yourself in three words. Champion of underdogs.

What has been the proudest moment in your career? Finding out that Sphinx's major sponsor will be supporting the national expansion of our program for senior women.

Is there anything you dislike about your job? Having to explain to people why it's important to invest in the advancement of women into leadership roles.

How did you come to be doing what you're doing? I realised just how much of a challenge it is for women who are significantly outnumbered by male peers.

What do you wish someone had told you? How long it would take to get the business really producing results.
